Getting Started

1. From the sermon or your direct reading of Ephesians 2:19-22, what surprised encouraged or challenged you?
2. Paul uses three images to describe the church: fellow citizens, members of God's household, and stones in God's temple. Which of these images stands out to you the most, and what does it teach us about the kind of relationships Christians are meant to have with one another?

Digging Deeper

3. The sermon argues that the gospel is the most powerful force shaping our identity—even more than culture or family background. In what ways have you experienced this kind of gospel-centered unity with other believers? Where do you struggle to believe or live this out?
4. The message challenges us to pursue deeper relationships marked by accountability, hospitality, and shared spirituality. Which of these areas is hardest for you right now, and why?

Living It Out

5. What is one practical step you can take this week to become more "built together" with the church?
